PROCEDURE

The original claims will be filed with the Bankruptcy Clerk to be file stamped, scanned, docketed in the computer system, and forwarded to the appropriate Standing Chapter 13 Trustee. The Trustees will enter into their computers the information from the proof of claim, including the creditor's name, address and the amount and nature of the claim. When the case is dismissed or payments under the confirmed plan are completed, the Trustee will send to the Clerk's office the final report which lists all the creditors and claims.
